Note

on

Subsidiary Legislation

This Chapter contains no subsidiary legislation.
CHAPTER 10:06
COMBATING OF TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS ACT
ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

SECTION

PART I
PRELIMINARY

1. Short title.
2. Interpretation.

PART II
CRIMINAL OFFENCES AND RELATED PROVISIONS

3. Trafficking in persons.
4. Unlawful withholding of identification papers.
5. Transporting a person for the purpose of exploiting such person’s prostitution.
6. Restitution.
7. Forfeiture.
9. Consent or past sexual behaviour history of victim is irrelevant.
10. Legal age of consent to sex not a defence in trafficking.
11. Victim immunity from prosecution.
12. Extradition.

PART III
ASSISTANCE AND PROTECTION FOR VICTIMS

13. Protection for the safety of victims.
15. Protection for the privacy of victims.
16. Information for victims.
17. Opportunity for presentation of victims’ views and concerns.
20. Assistance for citizen; permanent resident victims abroad.
21. Verification of citizen; permanent resident status and age.
SECTION
22. Return of victims to country of citizenship, permanent residence.
23. Victims unable to prove citizenship status through normal means.
24. Services for returned victims of trafficking.
25. Appropriate implementation for child victims.

PART IV
MISUSE OF TRANSPORTATION

26. Responsibilities of transportation companies or individuals.
27. Liability of transportation companies or individuals.
29. Measures to ensure the safety of children travelling unattended across international borders.

PART V
PREVENTING OF TRAFFICKING

31. Data collection and dissemination.
32. Training.
33. Public Awareness.
34. Exclusion of persons implicated in trafficking.
35. Border inspections.
36. Application of labour standards.

PART VI
SECURITY AND CONTROL OF DOCUMENTS

37. Integrity of travel and identity documents.
38. Verification of legitimacy and validity of documents.
CHAPTER 10:06
COMBATING OF TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS ACT

2 of 2005

An Act to provide comprehensive measures to combat trafficking in persons.

[7TH APRIL 2005]

PART I
PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the Combating of Trafficking in Persons Act.

2. In this Act—

“abuse of a position of vulnerability” means such abuse that the person believes he has no reasonable alternative but to submit to the labour or service demanded of the person, and includes but is not limited to taking advantage of the vulnerabilities resulting from the person having entered the country illegally or without proper documentation, pregnancy, any physical or mental disease or disability of the person, including addiction to the use of any substance, or reduced capacity to form judgments by virtue of being a child;

“child” means any person under eighteen years of age;

“coercion” includes violent as well as some forms of non-violent or psychological coercion, including—

(i) threats of serious harm to or physical restraint against any person;

(ii) any scheme, plan, or pattern intended to cause a person to believe that failure to perform an act would result in serious harm to or physical restraint against any persons; or
(iii) the abuse or threatened abuse of the legal process;

“debt bondage” means the status or condition of a debtor arising from a pledge by the debtor of his personal services or those of a person under his control as a security for debt, if the value of those services as reasonably assessed is not applied toward the liquidation of the debt or the length and nature of those services are not respectively limited and defined;

“exploitation” means—

(i) keeping a person in a state of slavery;
(ii) subjecting a person to practices similar to slavery;
(iii) compelling or causing a person to provide forced labour or services;
(iv) keeping a person in a state of servitude, including sexual servitude;
(v) exploitation of prostitution of another;
(vi) engaging in any form of commercial sexual exploitation, including but not limited to pimping, pandering, procuring, profiting from prostitution, maintaining a brothel, child pornography;
(vii) illicit removal of human organs;

“forced labour” means labour or services obtained or maintained through force, threat of force, or other means of coercion or physical restraint;

“illicit removal of organs” refers to the unlawful conduct, and not to legitimate medical procedures for which proper consent has been obtained;

“practices similar to slavery” includes, in general, debt bondage, servitude, forced or servile marriages and delivery of children for exploitation;

“servitude” means a condition of dependency in which the labour or services of a person are provided or obtained by threats of serious harm to that person or another person, or through any scheme, plan, or pattern intended to cause the person to believe that, if the person did not perform such labour or services, that person or another person would suffer serious harm;

“slavery” means the status or condition of a person over whom any or all the powers attaching to the right of ownership are exercised;

“trafficking in persons” means the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or receipt of a person by means of the threat or use of force or other means of coercion, or by abduction, fraud, deception, abuse of power or of a position of vulnerability, or by the giving or receiving of payments or benefits to achieve the consent of a person having control over another person, for the purposes of exploitation.

PART II
CRIMINAL OFFENCES AND RELATED PROVISIONS

3. (1) Whoever engages in or conspires to engage in, or attempts to engage in, or assist another person to engage in or organizes or directs other persons to engage in “trafficking in persons” shall—

(a) on summary conviction—

(i) be sentenced to not less than three years nor more than five years imprisonment;

(ii) be subject to forfeiture of property under section 7; and

(iii) be ordered to pay full restitution to the trafficked person or persons under section 6.

(b) on conviction on indictment—

(i) be sentenced to not less than five years or to life imprisonment;

(ii) be subject to forfeiture of property under section 7; and

(iii) be ordered to pay full restitution to the trafficked person or persons under section 6.

(2) The recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring, or receipt of any child, or the giving of payments or benefits to obtain the consent of a person having control of a child, for the purpose of exploitation shall constitute trafficking in persons irrespective of whether any of the means described in section 2(k) have been established.

4. Any person who for the purpose of trafficking in persons, and acting or purporting to act as another person’s employer, manager, supervisor, contractor, employment agent, or solicitor of clients such as a pimp, knowingly procures, destroys, conceals, removes, confiscates, or possesses any passport, immigration document, or other government identification document, whether actual or purported, belonging to another person commits an offence and shall on summary conviction be fined one million dollars together with imprisonment for not more than five years.
5. (1) Whoever knowingly transports or conspires to transport, or attempts to transport or assists another person engaged in transporting any person in Guyana or across an international border for the purpose of exploiting that person's prostitution commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to be punished in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) Persons convicted of the crime of transporting a person for the purpose of exploiting that person's prostitution shall be liable to a fine of not less than five hundred thousand dollars and not more than one million dollars and shall be imprisoned for not more than three years, but the presence of any one of the following aggravating factors resulting from acts of the defendant can permit a longer sentence up to a maximum of five years together with forfeiture of the conveyance used for transporting the victim—

(a) transporting two or more persons at the same time;
(b) permanent or life-threatening bodily injury to a person transported;
(c) transportation of one or more children; or
(d) transporting as part of the activity of an organized criminal group.

6. (1) Where a defendant is convicted of trafficking in persons under this Act, the court shall order the defendant to pay restitution to the victim.

(2) Restitution shall compensate the victim for—

(a) medical and psychological treatment;
(b) costs of physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation;

(c) costs of necessary transportation, temporary housing, and child care;

(d) lost income;

(e) attorney’s fees and other cost such as victim advocate fees;

(f) compensation for emotional distress, pain and suffering; and

(g) any other losses suffered by the victim.

(3) Restitution shall be paid to the victim promptly upon the conviction of the defendant, with the proceeds from the property forfeiture under section 7 applied first to payment of restitution. The return of the victim to the victim’s home country, normal place of residence in Guyana, or other absence of victim from the jurisdiction shall not prejudice the victims’ right to receive restitution.

7. All property, including but not limited to money, valuables and other movable and immovable property, of persons convicted of the crime of trafficking in persons under this Act that was used or intended to be used, or was obtained in the course of the crime, or benefits gained from the proceeds of the crime, shall be forfeited to the State. Overseas assets of persons convicted of trafficking in persons shall also be subject to forfeiture to the extent they can be retrieved by Government:

Provided that if the court, is satisfied beyond any reasonable doubt that—

(a) the person who was the owner of the LAWS OF GUYANA

Combating of Trafficking in Persons

Sentencing guidelines.

conveyance; and

(b) in the case of an aircraft or ship, every person who was a responsible officer thereof, when it was made use of for the purpose of trafficking in persons, was not concerned in or privy to such use, the conveyance shall be restored to the owner thereof by the court on application of the owner and this proviso shall mutatis mutandis apply to a forfeiture of a conveyance under section 5(2).

8. (1) As factually appropriate, the following adjustments to the sentence of a person convicted on indictment of the crime of trafficking in persons may apply—

(a) if the convicted person used, threatened use, or caused another to use or threaten use of a dangerous weapon, two years may be added to the sentence;

(b) if a trafficked person suffers a serious bodily injury, or if the convicted person commits a sexual assault against a trafficked person, five years may be added to the sentence;

(c) if the trafficked person had not attained the age of eighteen years, five years may be added to the sentence;

(d) if, in the course of trafficking or subsequent exploitation, the convicted person recklessly caused a trafficked person to be exposed to a life threatening illness, or if the convicted person intentionally caused a trafficked person to become addicted to any drug or medication, five years may be added to the sentence;

L.R.O. 1/2012

(e) if a trafficked person suffers a permanent or life threatening injury, ten years may be added to the sentence;

(f) if the trafficking was part of the activity of an organized criminal group three years may be added to the sentence; or

(g) if trafficking was part of the activity of an organized criminal group and the convicted person organized the group or directed its activities, five years may be added to the sentence;

(h) if the trafficking occurred as the result of abuse of power or position of authority, including but not limited to a parent or guardian, teacher, children’s club leader, or any other person who has been entrusted with the care or supervision of the child, four years may be added to the sentence.

(2) In this section—

“dangerous weapon” means—

(i) an instrument capable of inflicting death or serious bodily injury; or

(ii) an object that is not an instrument capable of inflicting death or serious bodily injury but (I) closely resembles such an instrument; or (II) is used in such a way that it creates the impression that the object is an instrument capable of inflicting death or serious bodily injury;

“life-threatening illness” means any illness that involves a substantial risk of death, and includes Human Immunodeficiency Virus infection and tuberculosis;

“organised criminal group” means a structured group of three or more persons, existing for a period of time and acting in concert with the aim of committing one or more offences established under this section in order to obtain, directly or indirectly, a financial or other material benefit;

“permanent or life-threatening bodily injury” mean injury involving a substantial risk of death; loss or substantial impairment of the function of a bodily member, organ or mental faculty that is likely to be permanent; or an obvious disfigurement that is likely to be permanent. Maltreatment to a life-threatening degree, such as by denial of food or medical care that results in substantial impairment of function, constitutes life-threatening bodily injury;

“serious bodily injury” means injury involving extreme physical pain or the protracted impairment of a function of a bodily member, organ or mental faculty; or requiring medical intervention such as surgery, hospitalisation, or physical rehabilitation;

“sexual assault” means causing another to engage in a sexual act by using force against that person, threatening or placing that person in fear that any person will be subjected to death, serious bodily injury, or kidnapping, and engaging in a sexual act with an incapacitated person, or a person who cannot express consent or with a minor that constitutes statutory rape.

9. (1) In a prosecution for trafficking in persons under section 3, the alleged consent of a person to the intended or realized exploitation is irrelevant once any of the means or circumstances set forth in section 2(k) is established.

(2) In a prosecution for trafficking in persons under section 3, evidence of a victim's past sexual behaviour is irrelevant and inadmissible for the purpose of proving that the victim engaged in other sexual behavior, or to prove the victim's sexual predisposition.

10. Age of consent to sex or legal age of marriage shall not be used as a defence to trafficking in persons.

11. A victim of trafficking is not criminally liable for any migration-related offence, prostitution, or any other criminal offence that was a direct result of being trafficked.

12. A person charged with trafficking in persons shall be extradited on substantially the same terms and to substantially the same extent as a person charged with other serious crimes.

PART III
ASSISTANCE AND PROTECTION FOR VICTIMS

13. Investigative, prosecutorial, and other appropriate authorities shall take all steps necessary to identify victims of trafficking. Once victims are identified, these authorities shall provide reasonable protection to victims of trafficking to prevent recapture by the traffickers and their associates, secure the victim and the victim's family if they reside in Guyana from threats, reprisals or intimidation by the traffickers and their associates, and ensure the victim has an opportunity to consult with a victim’s advocate or other appropriate person to develop a safety plan.

14. Victims of trafficking who are witnesses or potential witnesses may be eligible for applicable witness relocation and protection programmes for victims of organized criminal activity or other serious offences, if it is determined that an offence involving a crime of violence directed at the witness or potential witness is likely to be committed. The programmes may include—

(a) relocation;

(b) new identity, documents establishing identity;

(c) new residence;

(d) employment work permits;

(e) protection of confidentiality of identity and location.

15. (1) In a prosecution for trafficking in persons under this Act or unlawful use of documents under section 4, the identity of the victim and the victim’s family should be kept confidential by ensuring that names and identifying information of the victim and victim’s family are not released to the public, including by the defendant.

(2) A hearing under this section shall be held in camera if the court so orders.

(3) A person who commits a breach of the confidentiality enjoined by this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall on summary conviction be fined one hundred thousand dollars.

16. The Minister of Home Affairs shall inform victims of trafficking, in a language they can understand, of their legal rights and the progress of relevant court and administrative proceedings, as appropriate, including but not limited to prosecution of the criminal offenders, proceedings for the return of the victims to their country of citizenship or lawful residence, and procedures for seeking legal immigration status under section 19.

17. The court shall provide an opportunity to a victim of trafficking, if the victim desires it, to present the victim’s views and concerns at appropriate stages of criminal proceedings against traffickers, in a manner not prejudicial to the rights of the defendant. An interpreter who speaks a language the victim understands shall be made available to the victim during the course of legal proceedings.

18. (1) The Minister of Home Affairs in conjunction with the Minister of Labour, Human Services and Social Security shall develop plans, in consultation with non-governmental organizations and other representatives of civil society, for the provision of appropriate services, from governmental and non-governmental sources, for victims of trafficking and dependent children accompanying the victims, including—

(a) appropriate housing, taking into account the person’s status as a victim of crime and including safe conditions for sleeping, food and personal hygiene;

(b) psychological counselling in a language the victim can understand;

(c) medical assistance in a language the victim can understand;

(d) other medical assistance as appropriate;
(e) employment, educational, and training opportunities; and

(f) legal assistance or legal information in a language the victim understands.

(2) Victims of trafficking may be eligible to work and to receive proof of work authorisation.

(3) Victims of trafficking and their accompanying dependent children may be entitled to receive social benefits for the duration of their stay in Guyana as may be determined by the Minister responsible for social security.

(4) Residence in shelters or other facilities established under this section may be voluntary, and victims may decline to stay in shelters.

(5) Victims may have the option to communicate with and receive visits from family, friends and attorneys-at-law.

(6) In the absence of exigent circumstances, victims of trafficking, once identified as such, shall not be housed in prisons or other detention facilities for accused or convicted criminals. Child victims of trafficking, once identified as such, shall not be housed in prisons or other detention facilities for accused or convicted criminals under any circumstances.

(7) The authorities mentioned under subsection (1) shall take into account the age, gender and special needs of victims and accompanying dependent children in formulating plans to provide services to them and in delivering such services.

(8) Plans developed in accordance with subsection (1) shall be submitted for approval to the Cabinet and the said authorities shall also undertake periodic reviews of the plans and their implementation to ensure compliance with the requirements of this section and to ensure that all victims are treated with respect for their human rights and dignity.

19. (1) The Minister of Home Affairs may provide victims of trafficking and accompanying dependent children with appropriate visas or other required authorisation to permit them to remain in Guyana for the duration of the criminal prosecution against the traffickers, provided that the victim is willing to comply with the reasonable requests, if any, to assist in the investigation or prosecution of the traffickers.

(2) Victims of trafficking may be eligible for residence in Guyana in the manner prescribed in the Immigration Act, provided they have complied with reasonable requests, if any, for assistance in the investigation or prosecution of acts of trafficking. Dependent children accompanying the victim also shall be eligible for resident status in Guyana in the manner prescribed in the said Act.

(3) A victim’s spouse and children, and in the case of child victims, the parents or guardian, and the victim’s siblings, may be eligible to join the victim in Guyana as part of the victim’s initial application for residence under the preceding subsections.

20. (1) The Minister of Foreign Affairs, through Guyana’s diplomatic missions and consular offices abroad, where practicable, shall offer assistance to citizens of or persons holding permanent residency in another country and who are victims of trafficking in persons located abroad, including but not limited to—

(a) assistance in understanding the laws of the foreign country to which they have been trafficked, including their rights as victims, options for reporting the crime, and opportunities for seeking restitution or other benefits that are available under the laws of that country;

L.R.O. 1/2012

(b) assistance in obtaining emergency services, including but not limited to medical care and counselling;

(c) at the request of either the victim or the appropriate authorities in the other country, replacement or provision of passports and other travel documents necessary for the victim to return to Guyana without undue or unreasonable delay;

(d) material assistance in returning to their last place of residence in Guyana in the same manner provided for other citizens or persons with right of permanent residency who become stranded abroad when the country to which the victim was trafficked does not provide such assistance.

(2) The Minister of Foreign Affairs, through Guyana’s diplomatic missions and consular offices abroad, shall publish and disseminate information on the rights of victims of trafficking under the laws of Guyana and the country or countries for which the diplomatic mission has responsibility both to the appropriate authorities in that country and to possible victims of trafficking who are citizens of Guyana. In the case of diplomatic missions and consular offices of countries of destination of trafficking victims, such information shall be provided to appropriate authorities and to potential trafficking victims who are citizens or lawful residents of the country for which the mission or office has responsibility.

(3) Diplomatic missions of Guyana abroad shall appoint an officer to be responsible for implementing and supervising plans ensuring the provision of services required under this section.

(4) The Minister of Foreign Affairs in cooperation with other appropriate authorities shall develop plans as are reasonably convenient for the safe, orderly return without undue or unreasonable delay of citizens or persons holding permanent residency in Guyana.

21. (1) Upon request by the appropriate authority representative of another State, the Minister of Home Affairs shall, without undue or unreasonable delay, verify whether a person who is a victim of trafficking in persons is a citizen, or national of, or holds permanent residency in Guyana.

(2) Upon request by the appropriate authority or representative of another State, the Minister of Home Affairs shall, without undue or unreasonable delay, verify –

(i) the age of a person who is a victim of trafficking in persons and who is suspected of being a minor; and

(ii) whether the victim is a citizen, national of, holds permanent residency in Guyana, or any other immigration status the victim may have in Guyana.

(3) The Minister of Home Affairs shall designate an appropriate officer to respond to inquiries mentioned in subsections (1) and (2).

22. (1) The Ministers of Home Affairs and Foreign Affairs in conjunction with other appropriate authorities shall develop plans for the safe return of victims to their place of residence, country of citizenship or a country in which they hold permanent residency. Where possible, the Ministers of Victims unable to prove citizenship status through normal means.

Home Affairs and Foreign Affairs shall work closely with international organizations and non-governmental organizations in this process.

(2) Plans developed under subsection (1) shall take into account the right of victims to seek temporary or permanent residence under the provisions of section 19 and other rights guaranteed under other applicable laws.

23. (1) Victims of trafficking abroad who claim to be citizens or persons holding permanent residency in Guyana, but whose identity cannot be verified through ordinary means, can establish their right to return to Guyana by demonstrating significant connections to this country through such factors as—

(a) place of birth;

(b) presence of family members;

(c) presence of friends;

(d) significant knowledge of specific geographical areas or neighbourhoods;

(e) long-term residence in this country; or

(f) any other means.

(2) This list of factors in subsection (1) is not exhaustive, and not every factor is required to make the determination. Determinations under this section are to be made with due concern for compassion and justice to victims. The fact that the victim would not be eligible for citizenship based on the showing made under this section shall not be a bar to re-entry.
(3) Diplomatic missions abroad shall assign a specific diplomat to make determinations under this section. Victims may appeal an adverse determination to the Minister of Legal Affairs.

(4) Where the Minister of Legal Affairs determines an individual is eligible to re-enter Guyana under this section, the diplomatic mission abroad shall issue a certificate of identity, permitting re-entry.

24. Victims of trafficking who return from abroad shall have access to educational and training programmes provided by any governmental or private entity without being differentiated from other participants on the basis of having been trafficked.

25. The assistance in this Part shall be provided to trafficking victims who are children in a manner that is in the children’s best interests and appropriate to children’s situation. Child trafficking victims shall be provided with appropriate services, which may include understanding of their rights, privacy, housing, care and age-appropriate support and rights specified in this Part. Special programmes shall be developed to accommodate child witnesses including—

(a) testimony of a minor conducted outside court setting or by video;

(b) all testimony and court proceedings take place with a parent, legal guardian, foster parent or social worker present;

(c) whenever safe and possible, children shall be reunited with family members in Guyana;
Responsibility of transportation companies or individuals.

(d) special mental and physical medical care tailored to children’s needs;

(e) upon return to Guyana, child victims of trafficking shall be guaranteed education which at least matches the general standard of education in Guyana.

PART IV
MISUSE OF TRANSPORTATION

26. (1) Transportation companies or individuals who transport persons shall verify that every passenger possesses the necessary travel documents, including passports and visas, to enter the destination country and any transit countries.

(2) The requirement in subsection (1) applies both to staff selling or issuing tickets, boarding passes or similar travel documents and to staff collecting or checking tickets prior to or subsequent to boarding.

(3) Companies and persons who fail to comply with any of the requirements of this section may be sanctioned by the revocation of licences to operate, after a hearing before the competent authority.

27. When a transportation company or individual knowingly transports victims of trafficking, that company or individual shall be liable for costs associated with providing accommodation and meals for the victim and any accompanying dependent children for the duration of the victim’s stay in facilities designated under section 18 and shall bear the costs of their transportation to a port of entry of the country of which the victim is a citizen or in which the victim holds a normal place of residence in Guyana.
28. The Government shall take steps to educate citizens about sex tourism. It shall warn citizens that traveling to another country to engage in sex with a minor or a trafficked person may be a crime in the destination country or in the home country, or may constitute child abuse. These steps shall include—

(a) cooperating with airline industry, hotel industry, taxi industry, and others to jointly produce educational materials alerting them to evidence of sex tourism by their customers and warning them against facilitating such behaviours;

(b) warning citizens and employees in the industries mentioned in section 29 that a crime may be committed when someone engages in sex with a minor, sex tourism, or frequents a brothel holding trafficked women and children;

(c) giving up to date information about the links between the Human Immuno Deficiency Virus/Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome and other Sexually Transmitted Diseases and trafficking.

29. (1) Operators or crews of commercial vehicles, including airplanes, trains, buses and boats shall hold the travel documents of children under sixteen years of age travelling within or into Guyana without a parent, guardian, or other responsible adult from the time the child boards the vehicle and shall surrender the documents upon arrival to the appropriate immigration authority or other authority.

(2) At every destination point or port of entry, the immigration authority or other authority shall, if practicable, provide officers to meet children under sixteen years of age travelling without a parent, guardian or other responsible adult, receive the child’s travel documents from the operator of the commercial vehicle, and assist the child in passing through immigration and customs inspections. The officer shall surrender the child only to a parent, guardian, or other responsible adult upon presentation of appropriate identifying documents, and shall obtain a receipt indicating final destination, purpose of travel, and identification and address information of the receiving adult.

(3) Operators or owners of commercial vehicles delivering children under sixteen years of age travelling without a parent, guardian or other responsible adult within or into Guyana commit an offence and shall on summary conviction pay a fine of fifty thousand dollars for every such child that arrives without necessary travel documents.

PART V
PREVENTION OF TRAFFICKING

30. (1) The President shall establish an inter agency task force to develop and implement a National Plan for the Prevention of Trafficking in Persons. Such a task force should include all aspects of trafficking including sex trafficking and labour trafficking.

(2) The President shall appoint the members of the task force, which shall include the Ministers of Legal Affairs, Foreign Affairs, Labour, Human Services and Social Security, Amerindian Affairs, Home Affairs, other appropriate high-level government officials including officials with responsibility for law enforcement, immigration, and human and social services and appropriate non-governmental organizations.

(3) The task force shall carry out the following activities either directly or via one or more of the constituent ministries as appropriate—

(a) develop the National Plan for the Prevention of Trafficking in Persons;

(b) co-ordinate the implementation of the Plan;

(c) co-ordinate the collection and sharing of trafficking data among government agencies. All data collected shall the respect the privacy of victims of trafficking;

(d) co-ordinate the sharing of information between agencies for the purposes of determining whether individuals crossing or attempting to across the international border of Guyana with travel documents belonging to other persons or without travel documents are perpetrators of victims of trafficking in persons; and detecting criminal groups engaged in trafficking;

(e) identify and engage in efforts to facilitate cooperation with foreign countries, particularly those which are a significant source of victims, transit location, or destination of victims. This cooperation shall aim to strengthen bilateral, multilateral, local and regional capacities to assist trafficking victims, prevent trafficking, prosecute traffickers, and assist in the appropriate reintegration of victims of trafficking;
(f) establish policies to enable Guyana Government to work with non-governmental organizations and other elements of civil society to prevent trafficking and provide assistance to victims.

31. (1) The Minister of Home Affairs shall collect and periodically publish statistical data on trafficking,

(2) The Minister of Home Affairs shall elicit the cooperation and assistance of government agencies, non-governmental organizations, and other elements of civil society as appropriate to assist in the data collection required under sub-section (1).

(3) The Minister of Home Affairs shall make the best efforts to collect information relevant of tracking progress on trafficking, including but not limited to—

(a) number of arrests, prosecutions, and successful convictions of traffickers and those committing trafficking related crimes (pimping, pandering, procuring, maintaining a brothel, visa fraud, document fraud, and other crimes related to trafficking);

(b) statistics on the number of victims, including age, method of recruitment and other relevant information;

(c) trafficking routes and patterns (country of origin, transit countries);

(d) method of transportation (car, boat, plane, on foot);

(e) border crossing without legal travel
32. (1) The Minister of Home Affairs shall provide training for law enforcement, immigration, and other relevant officials in addressing trafficking in persons.

(2) Such training shall focus on—

(a) methods use in identifying victims of trafficking;

(b) methods for prosecuting traffickers;

(c) methods for protecting the rights of victims, taking into account the need to consider human rights and special needs of women and children victims, and that victims should be treated as victims rather than criminals; and

(d) methods for promoting the safety of victims, including, for example, the training of police and immigration officers to recognise victims of trafficking quickly.

(3) The Minister of Home Affairs shall seek the input and Participation of other Ministries, appropriate non-governmental organizations and other organizations in the preparation and presentation of training called for in this section.

33. (1) The Minister of Education in cooperation with other appropriate governmental agencies and appropriate non-governmental organizations shall prepare public awareness programmes designed to educate potential victims of trafficking in persons and their families of the risk of victimization. Such public awareness programmes shall include but shall not be limited to—
(a) information about the risk of becoming a victim, including information about common recruitment techniques, use of debt bondage, and other coercive tactics, risk of maltreatment, rape, exposure of Human Immuno Deficiency Virus/ Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome and other sexually transmitted diseases, and psychological harm related to the victimization in trafficking cases; and

(b) information about potential victims’ rights in Guyana and in major destination countries and under international law, as well as methods for reporting suspected recruitment activities.

(2) For trafficked persons the Minister of Labour, Human Services, and Social Security in cooperation with the other appropriate governmental agencies and appropriate non-governmental organizations shall prepare and disseminate educational materials designed to inform victims of trafficking in Guyana of their rights, the measures in place to ensure their safety, recovery, and safe return to their home countries or places of residence in Guyana, and how to contact appropriate law enforcement authorities. Such materials shall include, as appropriate, pamphlets, brochures, posters, advertisements in mass media, and any other methods appropriate for reaching victims of trafficking.

(3) The Minister of Labour, Human Services and Social Security in cooperation with other appropriate governmental agencies and appropriate non-governmental organizations shall prepare and disseminate public awareness materials designed to discourage the demand that foster the exploitation of persons, especially women and children, and that leads to trafficking—

(a) such materials may include information on impact of trafficking on individual victims, aggregate information on trafficking world-wide and domestically, as well as warnings of the potential for criminal consequences for taking part in trafficking. Such materials may include, as appropriate, pamphlets, brochures, posters, advertisements in mass media, and any appropriate methods.

(b) materials described in this section may include information on the impact of trafficking on individual victims. However, any information on the experiences of individual victims shall preserve the privacy of the victim and the victim’s family.

(4) All public awareness programmes established under this section shall be evaluated periodically to ensure their effectiveness.

34. (1) The Minister of Home Affairs shall periodically identify, in a public report, every person who is a trafficker of persons, or who had knowingly assisted or conspired with another to traffic in persons.

(2) Persons identified in reports under sub-section (1), or whom an overseas consular official knows or has reason to believe is a trafficker of persons, or who has knowingly assisted or conspired with a trafficker to traffic in persons, shall not receive an entrance or transit visa.
(3) The visas of persons identified in reports under subsection (1) shall be revoked.

35. (1) The Minister of Home Affairs shall implement policies to screen persons entering or leaving the country to determine if they are victims of trafficking in persons.

(2) Such screening shall be undertaken with consideration for the right of individuals to travel, and shall not result in undue invasion of the individual’s privacy or undue restriction of the individual’s freedom of movement.

36. (1) Standards for working conditions specified in 36(1). Standards for working conditions specified in legal right to work in this country.

(2) The Minister responsible for Labour shall investigate complaints of unlawful working conditions without regard to the immigration status of complainants and without regard to the nature of the work or services involved.

PART VI
SECURITY AND CONTROL OF DOCUMENTS

37. (1) The Minister of Home Affairs shall appoint a committee to monitor the quality of travel and identity documents issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs to ensure that they comply with International Civil Aviation Organization standards and that they cannot easily be misused and cannot readily be falsified or unlawfully altered, replicated, or issued.

(2) The task of the committee shall include, but not be limited to—

(a) monitoring technical developments in the field of anti-counterfeiting in order to recommend improvements to such documents as they develop;

(b) monitoring the issuance of travel documents abroad, with attention to patterns of abuse such as misrepresentation, corruption and fraud;

(c) monitoring the issuance of travel documents domestically, with attention to patterns of abuse such as misrepresentation, corruption and fraud; and

(d) forwarding examples of abuse described in the paragraphs (b) and (c) to the appropriate authorities for investigation.

38. (1) Upon request by the appropriate authority or representative of another State, the Minister of Home Affairs shall verify within a reasonable time the legitimacy and validity of travel or identity documents issued or purported to have been issued by such authority and suspected of being used for trafficking in persons.

(2) The Minister of Home Affairs shall assign an appropriate officer to respond to inquiries mentioned in subsection (1) or to establish procedures for responding to such inquiries in a regular and timely fashion.